When music is prayer!

Guests: Andrew Brewis and Alex Cook

On the upcoming Sentinel Watch podcast, a composer and a singer-songwriter talk about the role God plays in their creativity, and how they find the best results come from getting themselves out of the way. They give examples of how allowing God's love and light to shine through them as they write and perform their music leads to an outpouring of ideas, inspiration, and healing. To hear more about how music can be prayer, listen to the upcoming Sentinel Watch podcast on JSH-Online.com.

Lessons learned from the good Samaritan

Guest: Ann Kneeland

On the upcoming Sentinel Watch podcast, our guest explores the story of the good Samaritan and what it means to "love your neighbor as yourself." She shares her experiences of being a good Samaritan and being a person in need, and explains what she learned from each situation that helped her overcome pain, sickness, and lack through yielding to God's love. To hear powerful lessons from Jesus' good Samaritan parable in the Bible, listen to the upcoming Sentinel Watch podcast on JSH-Online.com.

Caring for the world's children

Guest: Ian Forber-Pratt

On the upcoming Sentinel Watch podcast, our guest shares what he learned about his true, spiritual identity, after he was born in India and then adopted by a white family in the United States. He describes his struggles, insights, and the holy moment that led him to discover his life purpose—to help the world’s children. He shares how he prayed, overcame fear and doubt, and founded the first foster child care system in India. To hear how recognizing everyone’s true, spiritual identity can help us care for the world’s children, listen to the upcoming Sentinel Watch podcast on JSH-Online.com.

Alleluia! The power of praising God

Guest: Jennifer Ann Gordon

On the upcoming Sentinel Watch podcast, our guest talks about how we each, as God’s expression, can never be separated from divine Love, and how praising God helps us experience His ceaseless goodness and love. She shares several experiences, including being left homeless with three children, in which healing resulted from her praise of God and how she learned to live a life of gratitude and joy on a daily basis. To hear how praising God can bring healing, listen to the upcoming Sentinel Watch podcast on JSH-Online.com.
